

Jewish Future

P R ☆ M I S E

The famous Passover song “Dayenu” is about being grateful.

What are you grateful for?

Jewish Future
P R ☆ M I S E

As we list the 10 plagues, we take 10 drops out of our wine glasses to commemorate all who suffered.

Who does your heart go out to this year?

Jewish Future
P R ☆ M I S E

Passover is about literal freedom from servitude.

How does giving make you feel free?

Jewish Future

P R ☆ M I S E

Imagine you could travel back in time to Egypt and tell the Jews they'd be safe - that their future was secure.

Now imagine traveling forward: what will you tell your future self?

Jewish Future

P R ☆ M I S E

The first Jew jumped into the Red Sea before it split.

What leaps of faith have you taken in your life?

Jewish Future

P R ☆ M I S E

Moses represents an ideal of leadership we still emulate today.

How do you lead people in creating a better world?

Jewish Future
P R ☆ M I S E

The Seder meal revolves around storytelling.

What is your greatest story about Jewish values?

Jewish Future
P R ☆ M I S E

Another way we tell stories at Passover is through song.

What's one of your favorite songs,
and how does it tell your story?

Jewish Future

P R ☆ M I S E

What message of freedom and hope do you want to give the world?

Jewish Future

P R ☆ M I S E

We read about four sons. Each one is different, but they all sit at the table.

What can you do to make sure every Jew is included in our story?

Jewish Future

P R ☆ M I S E

During Passover, we celebrate women such as Miriam, who led the Jewish people in praising G-d after the Exodus.

Who is a strong woman in your family?

Jewish Future

P R ☆ M I S E

Passover always takes place in spring,
a time of renewal.

What will you do differently during the next six months of the year?